THE CHEBYSHEV GRANTS

Dear Colleagues,

We would like to inform you that we have updated icm2022.org website and opened the registration. From now on, people can register to participate in the Congress and can apply for Chebyshev grants.

In order to apply for a grant, one has to register on the ICM website first and then to apply on MathPrograms website. The information about grants with all relevant links is available here: icm2022.org/grants.

We greatly appreciate your help in advertising these grants!

Please contact us at funding@icm2022.org if you have any queries.
